

WOOL

Bring US your wool. Based upon today's market, we offer you, in merchandise, for wool free from burs, the following prices:

Unwashed Wool ..... 35 cents
Tub Washed Wool ..... 45 cents

J. E. BURNETT & SONS

Is Your Bedroom Cozy?

That spot in which most folks are born and die, that haven where they find rest and intimacy between those two great journeys certainly should be as comfortable, convenient and inviting as taste and means will permit.

We Specialize

in bedroom furnishings. Our beds are designed for solid, old-fashioned comfort. Our wardrobes, dressing tables, chiffoniers, dressers, clothes chests, and the like, are sure to strike your fancy. And prices?—It is an economy to trade with us.

Our Word Is a Guaranty of Honest Values
BILBREY & PHILLIPS

Quality Steaks

A good piece of steak is always in order. If you want a porterhouse, sirloin, club, tenderloin, flank or round steak you will find we can meet your every requirement, and the people of this community know that our market stands for the best quality in meats of all kinds.

J. E. TAYLOR,
Successor to
TAYLOR BROTHERS.

Creston

Rev. E. W. Stone, of Baxter, will preach at Bakers Cross Roads the second Sunday in this month. Bro. Stone was our pastor three years ago and has many friends here who will be glad to know that he is going to preach for us again.

Mrs. Beaty, of Monterey, and Mrs. Ward were the guests of Mrs. John Brewer Tuesday.

Mrs. R. P. Boatman left for her home at Deermont last week. She was accompanied home by her sister, Miss Lillie Beaty.

Jere Morrow went to Crossville Saturday.

Mrs. Lewis Johnson and children, of Boma, are here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wash Johnson.

Little Miss Mary Morrow, of Pomona, has recently been the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jere Morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brewer and daughter, Miss Effie, went to Crossville Saturday.

Chas. Smith, of Crawford, visited his sister, Mrs. B. L. Duncan Friday. Alex Reed spent last week here with his family. He returned to his work Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith and Miss Frances, went to Crossville Saturday. Misses Sarah and Arminia Turner were here Monday.

William Morrow, of Pomona, was here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Duncan went to Crossville Saturday.

Mrs. Wid Parsons, who has been very sick, is recovering.

May 6. Violet.

HAS A GOOD REPUTATION.

The original and genuine Honey and Tar cough syrup is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and because this has given such universal satisfaction and cured so many cases of coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, there are imitations and substitutes offered to the public. Insist upon Foley's. For sale by Reed & Burnett.

New Liberty

The Sunday school is progressing nicely with Levi Thompson as superintendent.

Mrs. Chas. Deatherage and grandson, Jack Hyder, are visiting her son, Wesley Deatherage, this week.

Hassler Brothers are moving their saw mill down on Daddys Creek near Mrs. Easterly's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Tollett and children visited their uncle, Jesse Tollett, near Meridian Sunday.

Frank Hassler returned to Watson, where he is working, after spending Saturday with home folks.

Attorney J. W. Dorton and sons passed through here last week on their way to Crab Orchard.

Fred Hubbard has returned from Florida to his farm here for the summer. We are glad to have him with us again.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Myers spent Sunday night with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Rymer attended the fish supper at Crab Orchard Saturday night.

Heid Wright and daughter attended Sunday school here Sunday.

There will be a strawberry supper at New Liberty school house Saturday night, May 13th, for the benefit of the Sunday school. Everybody come and bring some one with you.

May 8. Pansy.

TELLS WHATS HE THINKS.

Anna Hawn, Cedar Grove, Mo., writes: "We think Foley Cathartic Tablets are the best liver pills we ever got hold of, as they do not nauseate or gripe, but act freely on the liver." Recommended for constipation, bloating, sour stomach, gas on stomach, bad breath, clogged or irregular bowel action. For sale by Reed & Burnett.

Grassy Cove

Revs. Blue and Hall held quarterly meeting here Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Mowbray passed away last week after a long illness. She leaves a husband and one daughter, Mrs. Stella Harvey, of Kingston. They have our deepest sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ford are on the sick list.

Mrs. W. B. Andrews has been sick, but is better.

Mrs. J. C. Kemmer returned from Knoxville, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hill.

Mrs. S. H. Brady, of Crab Orchard, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Raymon Monday, this week.

V. C. Burnett, of Crab Orchard, visited homefolks Saturday and Sunday.

W. B. Andrews was in Crab Orchard Saturday.

A. C. Kemmer went to Crab Orchard Saturday.

Miss Myrtle McDaniels is here from Crab Orchard, staying with Mrs. R. A. Powell, for a few weeks.

May 8. Tube Rose.

SHE TOLD HER NEIGHBOR.

"I told a neighbor whose child had croup, about Foley's Honey and Tar," writes Mrs. Rehkup, 2404 Herman St., Covington, Ky. "When she gave it a couple of doses she was so pleased with the change she didn't know what to say." This reliable remedy helps coughs, colds croup and whooping cough. For sale by Reed & Burnett.

Can that grouch and wear a smile.

Gasoline for sale at the Chronicle office.

Robert Martin spent Sunday in Waldensia visiting friends.

Send in your watches, we are prepared to have repair work done again. Prices will be reasonable and all work will be guaranteed. Send or bring the article to Bishop and he will do the rest.

The strawberry crop in Rhea and other counties east is said to be thirty per cent better this year than for many years at this stage of the picking. The weather is ideal for picking now. Several pickers left Crossville Monday for the berry fields and it is probable that over 100 persons will go from this county this week.

Black John, a first class jack, will make the season at my farm near Creston. H. M. Welch. 5-3-2t.

Mrs. A. C. Thompson and boys were in town Monday from Vandever on their way to the berry fields to see how the picking and packing is done and to take a general survey of the berry situation.

Monday evening about twenty young people drove in cars and buggies to Daddys Creek for supper. An enjoyable evening was spent, after which the party returned by moonlight.

20,000 sweet potato plants for sale, $1.25 per 1000. O. B. Rector. 5-3-2t.

Mrs. J. B. Johnson went to Chattanooga Sunday to visit friends and also to meet her little niece, Therese Chambers, of West Palm Beach, Fla.

W. L. Taylor, formerly of the Chronicle force, but for several years a resident of California, has recently purchased, in connection with his brother-in-law, the Semi-Weekly Post, Orange, California, and will conduct it along broad lines. For a year or two Mr. Taylor has been part owner of the Elsinore Valley Press, a weekly paper, but has decided to launch into a wider field. He is a capable newspaper man, a tireless worker and of strict integrity. Men of his type rarely fail in undertakings and we feel confident that he will make a decided success of his new venture. Such an outcome would meet with the hearty approval of many people throughout this section.

Miss Jessie Sherman, of Chicago, was here last week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Dunbar. She went on to Deer Lodge, where she will visit relatives and then return to her home.

Mrs. Olive K. Barnes is the guest of Miss Mabel Thurman in Sequatchie valley since Saturday.

Mrs. P. L. Stone was up from Vandever Saturday with her son, William Stone.

John Q. Burnett is wearing a very unpleasant feeling under his vest in the shape of a broken rib. He was out riding with Senator W. J. Hodges and some other men the other day and took a notion to show them what a sprinter of a nag he was riding. John says all went well until he came to the forks of the road, there he took one road and the horse the other. After he had brushed the dust off his clothes he found there was a stinging sensation in his side. On investigation a rib was found to be broken. Nothing very serious is expected to result and Mr. Burnett will be himself again in a few days.

Last Friday Mrs. S. C. Bishop met with the accident of having a heavy stick of wood fall and strike her on the right ankle. She has been confined to her room most of the time since but is improving and hopes to be fully recovered within a short time.

Esq. C. H. McCoy and father, Thos. McCoy, were over from Genesis Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ruff and two children were over from Isoline yesterday and favored this office with a call. Mr. Ruff came here from Saskatchewan, Canada, last winter and is opening up a farm near Isoline. He is making splendid progress and is a very desirable citizen.

I. E. Thurman went to St. Louis the first of the week on business.

E. S. Burnett spent Monday in Lancaster on business.

Notice was received yesterday of the death of George H. Day at the home for aged men in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. Day will be remembered by many of the older citizens as having been engaged in sheep raising here in the latter seventies. He was a man of high character and a thorough Christian gentleman. He was nearly 95 years when he died.

Mrs. Caroline Phillips, who lives over the Chronicle office, has gone to the Rhea county berry fields with her family for a few weeks.

J. T. Horn recently purchased 850 acres of land near Pomona and has been cutting the hickory from it for some weeks. He is now several cords ahead of the mill and will cut no more until the mill catches up. He has cut so far over 400 cords from the land. Most of the tie and stave timber had been removed before he purchased it and for that reason he does not expect to get much of that kind of merchantable stuff from the land.

Miss Rose Burnett spent the weekend in Crab Orchard visiting friends.

A. Lee was in from Mayland Monday.

J. Q. Wyatt moved in from his farm near Vandever Monday. Mr. Wyatt is one of the most successful farmers and cattlemen in the county. He has taken what was considered a very poor farm a few years ago and now has it in good condition and is producing better crops each year.

DON'T WORRY, but work.

The Art Circle will meet in the Library room this week.

Mrs. Martha Rea was in Crab Orchard the first of the week visiting her brother, J. S. Rea and family. While there she attended to some business connected with her property.

Ice Notice—Be sure you get your order in so I can deliver before 9 a. m. and after 4 p. m. as I won't open the ice house between these hours for small amounts. Phone Losbough's restaurant. H. C. Bandy.

They are not dead that live in the hearts of those left behind. Decorate your cemeteries with Royal Beauties, made by the Mayland Monument and Marble Company, Mayland, Tennessee. eow3-29-4t.

Register S. C. Cline and wife left yesterday for Knoxville for a stay of some weeks. Mr. Cline will be under the care of a prominent physician and Mrs. Cline will have an operation performed. During the absence of Register Cline Recorder O. B. Rector will be in charge of the register's office. Mr. Rector is a careful business man and will be found both courteous and accommodating to the public in general.

If you have nominated a lady in the Chronicle Subscription Contest get busy for her and you may bring her out winner of the grand prize. That means that you will get the handsome 26-piece set of Rogers silver FREE.

It will be of interest to many to know that Crossville now boasts of a Camp Fire Girls organization. A charter has been granted and the guardian appointment made by the National Headquarters in New York and the local Camp Fire has been duly organized with thirteen charter members, Miss Elizabeth Snow acting as Guardian.

Estrayed—one mouse colored mare mule, 2 years old. When last seen was somewhere near Cross Road school house. Finder please let me know or bring her to me and get pay for your trouble. J. P. Elmore, Isoline. 5-10-2t.

The Art Circle Library is now in Mrs. DeGolia's building. Open on Tuesdays and Saturdays from 2:30 until 4:30 p. m.

Last week W. J. Holladay arrived from Pikeville with his bride, Mrs. Holladay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pope, one of the most prominent and respected families of Blount county. For the present they have rooms at the Commercial hotel but expect to go to house keeping in the telephone building in a short time. Mr. Holladay is the local manager for the Ganesboro Telephone company. During his stay here he has been uniformly courteous to every one, prompt to remedy line troubles and has won the respect of our people generally. Our people are glad to welcome them as citizens of our town and the younger society folks will be especially pleased.

Miss Fannie DeGolia and General J. R. Mitchell were guests of Mrs. E. P. Melvin, at Waldensia the first of last week.

A. C. Thompson was up from Vandever Monday with the Buster Brown Kodak he won in the Chronicle subscription contest. He proffers to do work for any who may wish it and turn the proceeds to the Vandever Sunday school. Mr. Thompson is a wide awake citizen and one of the liveliest boosters that has ever made his home among us. He came here from Nebraska a few months ago and is highly pleased with the country and considers it a land of great promise.

If you want pencils, fountain pens, pen points, ink wells, library paste, or paper fasteners come to the Chronicle office for them.

J. M. Baird was over from Ozone last week to secure guardian papers for J. V. Frisby, who is of unsound mind. Mr. Frisby is a pensioner and is not able to transact the business necessary to secure the pension money due him each quarter; hence Mr. Baird was appointed guardian to look after his affairs and to care for him.

Arthur Burnett left on the early train yesterday for points in Texas seeking a business location.

If you want score cards and pencils, paper napkins, nice writing paper cut to special size come to the Chronicle office for them.

Lone Star

Newest, quickest train to Texas!

Leaves Memphis 9:30 p. m.
Arrives Dallas 11:15 a. m.
Arrives Ft. Worth 12:50 noon

The only line operating solid trains between Memphis and Texas

Cotton Belt Route all the way—no change of cars, no missing connections. Morning train leaves Memphis 9:40 a. m. Trains from the Southeast connect at Memphis.

Low Fares
to Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico.

W. G. Adams,
Travel Pass Agent,
414 Church Street,
Nashville, Tenn.